

The best rooftop bars in New York

NEW YORK CITY The Upstairs rooftop bar is a more classic New York affair. As part of the Kimberley hotel, the bar is a modern take on old-school glamour and the liberal sprinkling of fairy lights on the rooftop creates an intimate atmosphere and the decor encompasses clean lines and elegant furniture.

Officially open to public on June 9, Upstairs attracts a mature crowd in Midtown who get a 360-degree view of New York (the highlight being a spectacular view of the Chrysler building). They also have a great variety of cocktails by world renowned mixologist Alexander Ott to sample, as well as an in-depth wine list and a good selection of beers. Rain is not a problem as the retractable rooftop makes it possible to enjoy the urban landscape whatever the weather.

Upstairs at the Kimberley 145 East 50th Street, New York, 10022 (01 212 702 1600; www.kimberlyhotel.com)

Recommended links

- More New York: the city guide
- Rooftop bars: the best in Barcelona
- New York iPhone app
- Restaurant week in New York
- Book the best hotels in NYC on CNTraveller.com